Preston Publishing announces:

Trade Case Monitor: OCTG

The first ever semi-monthly trade case monitor will be available starting May 12 for a one time subscription fee of $250 US. This publication will provide consistent reporting on the OCTG trade case that was filed on April 8, 2008. The first issue of the report will outline all background information of the petition and discuss the anti-dumping, countervailing duty aspects of the case. A handy time line for the case will be included. The report will also include periodic ALERTS if important decisions happen between publish dates. Your subscription will be delivered via email and will include:

- ❖ The important first issue with details on the case and definitions to make you the informed party
- ❖ Updates twice a month and periodic alerts of key activities between publish dates
- ❖ Definitions of trade case terms
- ❖ Import tracking for handy reference
- ❖ Reports on the actual activity, hearings, motions, data requests that keep you informed
- ❖ Final case wrap up
- ❖ Preston market commentary along the way

Fee: $250 US for the duration of the case (up to 3 email addresses same company $450)
